The latest and greatest comedy sensation is "Marriage à la Mode," interpreted by the character comedian, Joseph Lombardi, and his comedy company of eighteen players will appear at Holland's Opera House on Monday evening, Dec. 11. This is supposed to be the funniest comedy ever written and it is a sure bet that it will be full of bright songs, laughable scenes and situations, clever dances and pretty costumes. There will be a grand street scene at noon and a grand musical number at 8 o'clock. The Opera House at 5 p.m. It is safe to say the traffic will rise on the streets, as presented on the

The materials for equipment will probably be purchased in Europe. The job will be native with some modern appliances for railway building, for the reason that the primitive equipment is not adapted to work much less expensively than improved equipment can be used. There are no great local difficulties. There are, however, the contractors say. All the work is done by the Government. M. Hiss, one of the Townsend and A. W. Williams, who are the contractors. The contractors call for an expenditure of $5,000,000. The work is done by the contractors through lower class, crossing
